

Вакансия GTZ

Немецким бюро технического сотрудничества GTZ в ближайшее время будет проведен конкурс на замещение вакансии регионального координатора в Крыму.

<http://rabota.ua/company153863/vacancy4603762>

www.job.ukr.net

Конкурсные условия:

The German Technical Cooperation (GTZ) is looking for the project "Economic and Employment Promotion" in Crimea as soon as possible an

Regional Project Coordinator

The tasks include:

- Planning, coordinating and monitoring implementation of all project activities in AR Crimea
- Maintenance and development of an overall good flow of communication and information between all involved institutions: relevant stakeholders, project partners, GTZ and external experts in AR Crimea
- Facilitating process of investigation of the needs of local government and non-government institutions
- Monitoring and reporting on meetings, workshops, seminars and other project activities in Crimea
- Providing relevant financial reports
- Observing topics directly related to the project through evaluation by the press, direct dialog, forum participation, public hearings, seminars etc.
- Supporting national and international consultants and experts of the project to fulfil their tasks during their assignment
- Other tasks relevant to the project in coordination with team leader

We expect at least 5 years professional experience in economic field.

Preferable: Experience in international technical assistance projects, coordination and cooperation with different partners and other donors, and sensitivity to political consulting.

Education: University degree, desirable in economic sciences.

Other qualifications: Perfect use of computers (MS Office, Excel, Power Point), independent and responsible work, good manners, flexibility and resilience, team working. Fluent in English, Russian, Ukrainian. German would be an advantage.

Closing date: 15 December 2010.